The remedy for non-payment of a contractual debt

What happens when a creditor petitions to wind up a company for the non-payment of a contractual debt and the company disputes both the debt and also the jurisdiction of the court to wind up the company on the basis that the debt, on which the petition is based, arises out of a contract containing an arbitration agreement?

Cayman Court makes first fair value determination in merger dispute

The Cayman Islands legislature introduced the statutory merger and consolidation regime which is now found in Part XVI of the Companies Law (2013 Revision) in May 2009. Since then, the regime has been widely used to effect mergers and consolidations...

A New Chapter in Directors' Liability: Weaving v Peterson & Ekstrom Overturned on Appeal

Weaving Macro Fixed Income Fund Limited (In Liquidation) (Fund) was a Cayman Islands hedge fund which collapsed when it emerged that its biggest trading position was, in fact, fictitious. The red flag missed by the board was that the counterparty to that trade was an entity controlled by the fund's manager.
