The Republic of Mauritius is experiencing dramatic growth. This offshore location provides options for international clients, particularly those with an interest in business into and out of African and Asian markets. Mauritius is a member of the WTO, the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa (COMESA) and the Southern African Development Community (SADC), and has the effective commercial and legal infrastructure required to support the development of a global business network. It is also party to a number of double taxation agreements and is listed on the OECD “white list”.

The importance of Mauritius as a gateway for investment into Africa was highlighted in the 2016 annual ‘Doing Business’ report from the World Bank. In the report the Bank identified Mauritius as
